The thoughts of Generation Z

"Without music/YouTube what would people do? For me, the internet is so much more, it becomes part of my day, my week, my month and my year and so on."

"Unfortunately, you cannot police the internet. This can make it a dangerous place for vulnerable people."

"It's a way for me to talk to people from all over the world, not only for a social life but as a way to learn more about different countries, traditions and people."

"It means a lot to me. I am always on the internet, whether it's on my laptop, or my phone!"

"It's a place where I can get away from the stress of the real world, and talk to people about it."

"Virtual communities are confidence boosting by helping you meet all types of people from various backgrounds."

"The internet is a source to find things to entertain you, so for me the internet is an entertainment package"

"The internet means bringing people together, having fun when you are bored and getting information on things you need to know."

"Virtual worlds are an excellent way of making new friends. They allow you to become more confident when meeting new people. It allows you to assert your independence."

"Virtual worlds help teach children to learn and help kids to become confident in themselves as they get new friends."

"Being in a virtual world gets your creativity flowing through your designs on clothes ..."

"A virtual world is a place where you can get away from real life and you don't have to be yourself, you can be whoever you want to be."

"Using a virtual world has taught me a lot including co-operation, trading and many other things that will help in real life."

"Virtual worlds are good for many things for example, they teach you to always stay safe and not to share personal information out with others."
